Westerberg & Partners invites you to an insightful and light-hearted session about IP monetization with our distinguished guest On Lu, Partner at Nixon Peabody. Based in San Francisco, On Lu specializes in monetizing IP to generate revenue, defend against litigation, and cross-license with competitors. He works with some of the most prestigious tech-titans around the world to convert their IP cost centers into profit centers.

When: Tuesday 15 August, 16:30 – 18:00 followed by a reception with snacks and refreshments.

Where: Westerberg & Partners' office at Regeringsgatan 66, Stockholm.

Please RSVP to event@westerberg.com no later than Thursday 10 August to reserve your seat at the event. We invite you to share topics that you would like to hear about so that we can customize the case studies to be presented.

Join Westerberg + Nixon Peabody in jumpstarting the next semester together with IP colleagues!

If you register for this event, Westerberg & Partners will retain your information for the purposes of managing the event and you may also receive relevant information about our services, events and publications. You can unsubscribe at any time.

Westerberg