

Will Your Award Stand in Court?

Swedish courts' approach to challenge matters

Prof. Johnny Herre
former Justice of the Supreme Court

Dr. Patrik Schöldström
judge, Svea Court of Appeal

Evelina Wahlström
legal counsel, SCC

Kristoffer Löf
Mannheimer Swartling

James Hope
Vinge

Ginta Ahrel
Westerberg & Partners

See agenda HERE

When: 23 May 2024, 16.00 – 18.30 CEST

Where: online and at Westerberg & Partners

Please register by e-mail to event@westerberg.com

Sweden and Stockholm host hundreds of international and domestic arbitrations every year. Some awards are challenged in Swedish courts, which over the past decades has given rise to a substantial body of arbitration-related jurisprudence.

Westerberg & Partners is pleased to host a high-level debate on the legal and practical considerations parties and their counsel should weigh when challenging or defending an arbitral award in Swedish Courts.

This discussion is inspired by the empirical analysis from Westerberg Arbitration Tracker 2024, a comprehensive study of all challenges to arbitral awards in Swedish courts filed since 2004 and soon available on:

<https://westerberg.com/articles-news-events/>

Agenda

---

16.00 – The key findings in Westerberg Arbitration Tracker 2024

Jacob Ericson
senior associate
Westerberg & Partners

---

16.15 – 17.15 Panel debate moderated by Ginta Ahrel

Panelists:

Prof. Johnny Herre
former Justice of the Supreme Court

Dr. Patrik Schöldström
judge, Svea Court of Appeal

Evelina Wahlström
legal counsel, SCC

Kristoffer Löf
Mannheimer Swartling

James Hope
Vinge

- Success rate of most commonly invoked grounds for challenges
- How does Sweden's approach to challenging awards differ from other jurisdictions?
- Strategies for drafting enforceable awards: practitioners' insights
- The main trends and the way forward

---

17.15 – 17.30 Q & A, followed by light refreshments

---

If you register for this event, Westerberg & Partners will retain your information for the purposes of managing the event and you may also receive relevant information about our services, events and publications. You can unsubscribe at any time.